

Policy of Code of Conduct Monitoring Committee

Saraighat College

Background:

Saraighat College has a prescribed Code of Conduct for all the students taking admission in the institution which is mentioned in the Handbook on Professional Ethics, Rules and Regulations uploaded in the college website. It is expected that all the students abide by the prescribed code of conduct to foster discipline and protect the core values of the institution. The employees of the institution, both teaching and the non-teaching staff abide by the UGC Guidelines on Code of Professional Ethics for university and college teachers and Assam State Civil Service Rules, 2015 respectively.

An educational institution has always to strive to maintain an environment of order, discipline and trust which is free from any kind of disruption. The code of conduct is essential to set a boundary to what is acceptable within the campus and what is not. All the students come under the purview of the code of conduct and violation of any of these rules may be considered as an offense.

Scope of Code of Conduct Monitoring Committee:

The Code of Conduct Committee headed by the Principal as Chairperson is responsible for monitoring the maintenance of discipline, ethics, good values, academic environment and code of conduct in the institution. The Code of Conduct Monitoring Committee has been formed mainly with this objective. The Committee works in collaboration with the following other committees to monitor the implementation of Code of Conduct in the campus:

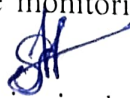

1. Disciplinary Action Committee
2. Anti- Ragging Committee
3. Anti- Narcotics and Drugs Committee
4. Grievance Redressal Cell
5. Internal Complaint Committee
6. Students' Union

Composition of the Committee:

1. Principal – Advisor of the committee
2. One Senior Faculty – Convener
3. One/Two Senior Teachers – Members
4. One Office staff – Member
5. President of Students Union- Student Member

The Code of Conduct Monitoring Committee shall follow the guidelines set in the Handbook on Professional Ethics, Rules and Regulations while monitoring the code of conduct.

Principal

Saraighat College, Changsari
Principal
Saraighat College

Policy of Code of Conduct Monitoring Committee

Saraighat College

Background:

Saraighat College has a prescribed Code of Conduct for all the students taking admission in the institution which is mentioned in the Handbook on Professional Ethics, Rules and Regulations uploaded in the college website. It is expected that all the students abide by the prescribed code of conduct to foster discipline and protect the core values of the institution. The employees of the institution, both teaching and the non-teaching staff abide by the UGC Guidelines on Code of Professional Ethics for university and college teachers and Assam State Civil Service Rules, 2015 respectively.

An educational institution has always to strive to maintain an environment of order, discipline and trust which is free from any kind of disruption. The code of conduct is essential to set a boundary to what is acceptable within the campus and what is not. All the students come under the purview of the code of conduct and violation of any of these rules may be considered as an offense.

Scope of Code of Conduct Monitoring Committee:

The Code of Conduct Committee headed by the Principal as Chairperson is responsible for monitoring the maintenance of discipline, ethics, good values, academic environment and code of conduct in the institution. The Code of Conduct Monitoring Committee has been formed mainly with this objective. The Committee works in collaboration with the following other committees to monitor the implementation of Code of Conduct in the campus:

1. Disciplinary Action Committee
2. Anti- Ragging Committee
3. Anti- Narcotics and Drugs Committee
4. Grievance Redressal Cell
5. Internal Complaint Committee
6. Students' Union

Composition of the Committee:

1. Principal – Advisor of the committee
2. One Senior Faculty – Convener
3. One/Two Senior Teachers – Members
4. One Office staff – Member
5. President of Students Union- Student Member

The Code of Conduct Monitoring Committee shall follow the guidelines set in the Handbook on Professional Ethics, Rules and Regulations while monitoring the code of conduct.

Principal

Saraighat College, Changsari

Principal
Saraighat College